MARKET IS STOCKED UP AFTER HOLIDAY

Florida Tomatoes Appear, But Supply Is Small and Affect Prices Very Little.

Increasing Demand for Tiledish and Its Scarcity Have Caused an Advance.

For a day following a big national holiday the markets of the city were well patronized this morning, and the benches of the dealers were well supplied with all good things for the table. Florida tomatoes have appeared in the market, but the dealers report the supply small and of little effect on prices. Endive has also appeared on the produce benches, but it is scarce and is bringing fancy prices. In spite of the warm weather turkey prices keep up, from 25 to 28 cents a pound being asked for them. Ortolan, which have been scarce, have disappeared from the game benches, but rabbits are plentiful at from 20 to 40 cents each. In the meat market the cheaper cuts of lamb and roasting pork and the better cuts of steaming beef, pork chops and corned ham are lower in price. The increasing demand for tiledish, combined with its scarcity, has caused an advance of 5 cents a pound and today it is selling at 20 cents a pound.

DEMAND FOR FISH IS LIGHT.

Supply at Wholesale Market Exceptionally Scarce—Prices High.

Following the light fish demand of the early part of the week, the demand this morning is reported to have been quite brisk in the wholesale market at the wharf, while the supply of fish received was light. River fish are exceptionally scarce and the bulk of the supply on sale is coming from the nets on the New Jersey coast and from about Norfolk.

Prices keep high and show but little change from those quoted last week. The range of prices at the wharf market this morning was about as follows: Spanish mackerel, 12 1/2 to 15 cents pound; green pike, 10 cents pound; bluefish, 15 cents pound; rock, 8 to 15 cents pound; pollock and haddock, each 5 cents pound; Potomac and North Carolina bass, 11 to 14 cents pound; salmon, 12 1/2 cents pound; white perch, large, 10 to 12 1/2 cents pound; carp, 5 cents pound; flounders, 6 cents pound; butterfish, 8 cents pound; white perch, small, 15 to 25 cents bunch; yellow perch, 25 to 40 cents bunch; catfish, 25 to 40 cents bunch; large gray trout, 25 to 30 cents barrel; small gray trout, $12 a barrel; croakers, $12.50 a barrel, and ling, $5 barrel.

A good supply of oysters is aboard the vessels lying at the oyster wharf and the demand is fair. Prices for Potomac stock range from about 40 to 70 cents a bushel and up to 90 cents and $1 a bushel for choice bay oysters.

CHINA EXPECTS TO BUILD 4,000 MILES OF RAILROAD

Engineer From That Country in Conference With Steel Rail Manufacturers at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, November 26.—C. T. Hsia, an engineer of the Chinese ministry of communications, arrived in Pittsburgh last night and spent today in consultation with manufacturers of steel rails and other supplies and equipment. He explained that the Chinese government has completed the construction of 4,000 miles of railroad and he has been commissioned to investigate American standards with a view to placing orders in this country.

Heretofore railroad construction in China has been under the direction of European engineers, who have inaugurated the adoption of European equipment. The Chinese government purchases now so difficult that the Chinese government turned to the United States.

Acquitted of Charge of Assault.

Viola Gussaway, colored, recently indicted by the grand jury for an assault with a dangerous weapon, was acquitted Wednesday by a jury in Criminal Division 2 of the District Supreme Court, Justice Siddons presiding. The indictment alleged that the girl used a razor on Eva Mudd, also colored, at a "parlor social" in Southeast Washington last Saturday day. Viola stoutly denied the cutting, however, and claimed that Eva was injured in a free-for-all fight by a man, who has since disappeared. Attorney Harry L. Tignor appeared for the defendant.

MR. AND MRS. BAILY RIDE

Miss Margaret G. Baily as the "Fox" Leads Field of Enthusiastic Hunters.

The paper chase engineered by the back-to-the-saddle devotees was run yesterday and thirty-two man and woman riders followed the "fox," who was Miss Margaret G. Baily, riding Gray Bird. The start was made from Rosslyn and Miss Baily, accompanied by L. Green, bugler, Battery A, Field Artillery, N. G. D. C., laid out a course to Clarendon, Ballston, Columbia pike, Bailey's cross roads and Glenclaryn. The "fox" had half an hour's start of the first pair of hunters and left many breaks in the trail, which at times made it difficult for the hunters to pick it up. The hunters were sent off in pairs at intervals of about two minutes.

First in "at the Death."

The first riders in "at the death" were Miss Louise Bridges and Theodore Walters, the second pair in were Miss Margaret Fisher and C. M. Love, and the third pair, Miss Dorothy Payne and Blake Schall. The trail led through the country for fifteen miles, and at the end the riders were ten miles out from the point of starting. The ride of twenty-five miles was covered in good time and style. Among the riders who finished were: Misses L. L. Carmody, M. Carmody, Ida Bowes, Sue H. Murray, Anne Regan, Dorothy Magallon, Antoinette Jarrett, A. P. Musser, M. P. Perkins and Nellie Sherwood, and Messrs. John H. Evans, Elmer H. Fink, J. R. Guerin, Herman J. Heller, Charles Kotha, A. G. Maddox, Daniel Folkmar, W. J. McJannet, E. M. Palmer, Clayton Copperthite, Dr. Frank G. Rutter and Mrs. Rutter and Mrs. Sailer.

Regular Program Abandoned.

Because of the paper chase yesterday, and which was not concluded until afternoon, there were no organized groups of riders in Rock Creek valley, but the saddle paths were merry with independent groups, pairs and lone riders who had come back to the saddle at the call of the Washington riders.

The Washington riders will lead a party of horsemen and horsewomen through a picturesque part of Virginia Sunday morning. The party will assemble on O street between Wisconsin avenue and First street at 9 o'clock. The afternoon party will assemble at Pierce mill at 3 o'clock. The morning leader will be Mr. von Ziehlinski, and in the afternoon the leader probably will be Mr. Brands, though Mr. Brown and Mr. Kleps of the Washington riders also will be in the saddle throughout the afternoon.

Materials are gabardines, broadcloths, poplins, whipcords, men's wear serge, wool stockinette and the choice mixtures and novelty cloths.

A particularly good choice of the new colors—navy blue, black, field mouse, African brown, bottle green, gray, black with white hairline stripes and checked novelties.

There are sizes for every woman.

In addition to the regulation sizes for slender and average size women we have included a well selected line of the famous "Stylish Stout" Suits and Extra-size Suits for the large woman, who heretofore has found it very difficult to be properly fitted—and this is very true in regard to suits at special sale prices.

All sizes in this sale, $25 at the one price.

Regulars, 34 to 44.
Extras, 40 1/2 to 52 1/2.

EDUCATORS OF MEXICO ARRIVE IN WASHINGTON

Eighty-One Teachers and Officials Are Guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Headed by Eliseo Garcia, former chief of the department of public instruction of Mexico, a commission of eighty-one Mexican school teachers and officials arrived in Washington yesterday for a stay of six days. The educators are making a tour of inspection in this country under instructions from Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the republic, to study educational methods. The chief purpose of the trip is to study methods of primary instruction.

Today the visitors were taken on a sightseeing trip about Washington as guests of the Washington Chamber of Commerce. The remainder of the day was spent in visiting public buildings. While in Washington the educators plan to confer with Philander P. Clark, United States commissioner of education. With the opening of the public schools Monday, following the Thanksgiving holiday period, they will visit the school facilities of the city. School architecture and sanitation also will be studied.

Studied at Harvard.

The party came here from Boston, where they had been for several months studying educational methods and taking post-graduate work at Harvard University. The expenses of the party have been paid by the Carranza government, it is stated. The party includes inspectors of public instruction in the twenty-seven states of Mexico and many primary school teachers. The educators are to leave Washington Tuesday night for Philadelphia and will sail for New York on December 9 to Havana and Vera Cruz. It is understood that a like commission soon is to visit this country to study the methods of instruction in grammar schools, which correspond to the high schools of Mexico.

According to Senor Garcia, leader of the party, as soon as political disturbances have been settled in Mexico employment will be offered there for at least 1,000 American and English school teachers who can speak Spanish.

JAMES BERRY IS TO HEAD BUILDING ASSOCIATION

Elected by Perpetual to Succeed the Late Charles F. Benjamin.

Other Officers Chosen.

James Berry, a resident of Washington more than forty years and a director of the Perpetual Building Association for more than thirteen years, has been elected president of the organization to succeed the late Charles F. Benjamin. Other officers, chosen at a recent meeting of members of the association, are: George Wright, vice president; Henry C. Espey, treasurer; Joshua W. Carr, secretary; C. Banks Bookes and William R. Hillyer, auditors; Arthur Carr and George Wright, supervisors; Arthur Carr, Marvin A. Custis, trustees, and Arthur Carr, superintendent of the building. The house of directors is at present composed of James Berry, C. Banks Bookes, Arthur Carr, Joshua Carr, Dr. Martin A. Custis, Henry C. Espey, William R. Hillyer, Angus Lamond and George Wright.

Native of Maryland.

Mr. Berry is a native of Charles county, Md. At an early age he went to work as a clerk in a country store. He came to Washington in 1875 and engaged in mercantile pursuits in Georgetown for three years, when he enlisted in the United States Signal Corps, serving at Fort Myer, Va., and at Camp Meade, where the weather service was transferred to the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Berry, who was then sergeant in the Signal Corps, entered the weather bureau, rising through successive promotions to chief of the climate and crop division in 1895. As chief of this division he originated and edited for several years the crop bulletin of the weather bureau.

Mr. Berry was elected a director of the Building Association in 1902, and for some years prior to his election as president served as vice president. He is a member of Hiram Lodge, F. A. M., and of Orient Commandery, K. T. O. and also is a member of the Oldest Inhabitants.

This Boys' Store Is Pleasing Every One

It pleases the boys because the styles are just what their tastes and preferences demand—they reflect the bright and boyish spirit, and they have the durability and quality to last.

It pleases the mothers because she likes her boy to look well, and it is pleasant for her to select everything is arranged conveniently, and there is nothing that is not in good taste.

It pleases fathers, because they know the standard of quality here, and, manlike, want some surety that they can depend on. Buying here means fewer outfits for the boy, because our boys' wear lasts—and costs no more than the ordinary.

Blue Serge and Fancy Wool Suits.

Blue Serge Suits are priced from $5 to $15, and are shown in all sizes from 7 to 18 years, with a real fitting for every boy. There are Blue Chevots also shown. We guarantee the texture and color of these suits—they won't fade; every one has been tested before being placed on sale. Every piece of fabric has been thoroughly shrunken by the improved cold-water process.

The Great New Stock of Warm Overcoats.

Overcoats for the Junior Boy (2 1/2 to 9 years), priced from $5.00 to $12.50. They are of chinchillas, kerseys, in navy blue, brown, light oxford gray and dark oxford gray. Convertible and military style collars; all of them lined with warm wools to give ample protection during the coldest weather. Scotch and English chevots and other mixtures. Every good model.

Overcoats for the Senior Boys (10 to 18 years), priced from $5.00 to $15.00. Three-quarter and Full-length. Overcoats, in both form and loose fitting, and either single or double breasted—buton through and fly front models, with self or velvet collars. Fine fabrics, in kerseys, chevots and other warm and fine appearing weaves. A plentiful showing of the most distinctive styles in Mackinaws—all the smart color schemes.

THE TOY STORE.

The biggest and best Toy Store we have ever had. It is full to overflowing with Toys for boys, girls and babies. Full stocks of every kind of Toy, Doll, Game and also Books—cloth bound, linen bound and paper bound; Drawing Books. You can have no idea of how complete this toy store is until you have inspected the displays. Many imported novelties that will not be seen outside of this store. The best domestic Toys—and America is producing more Toys and Finer Toys than she ever has before.

Our Toys are very moderately priced—and every toy is of first quality. We ask you to make comparison of prices, and prove that our regular markings are frequently lower than those advertised as "special" or sale prices.

REALLY NEW—THE HOME TOYMAKER.

Tools, materials, designs and full instructions for sawing out and making a number of toys. It is interesting and instructive. An educational toy of great merit. All the boys—little and big—will like it, because it affords the chance of "making something." In addition to the designs furnished, many others can be made by using illustrations cut from magazines and newspapers. Then if he wants to, the boy can color them with crayons or paints to make them more realistic. All compactly put up in attractive boxes.
